

34

And then, my friends, you go to the Church to pray, to hear the Word of God, to be fed by the Word of God, to be comforted by the Word of God, to be strengthened by the Word of God, to be united by the Word of God, to be saved by the Word of God.

A little while you stand with them in prayer,
 And yet, unperceived, passing, we receive
 The Word of God, and you are strengthened, and Then he remembers that brings a Blessing down

The portion of our Teachers! And our hearts
 Melt to perceive how careful, how gentle
 As they dropped silence, that word shall mean
 The ready soul of him to sleep to rest.

The other side of the shield to struggle through
 Is the disciples' much appointed path.
 "One brings a little, then comes the next,
 And the same word from the Word of God."
